

California Lawyers for the Arts &
New Media Rights present

Artist-Gallery Agreements & Copyright Law

Wednesday, February 26, 2014 - 6 PM to 7:30 PM
@ Bread & Salt, 1955 Julian Avenue, San Diego, California 92113

Program:

California Lawyers for the Arts and New Media Rights present a workshop for visual artists to gain an understanding of artist-gallery agreement basics and a broad overview of copyright law.

Presenter Jennifer Nelson will cover California state laws governing consignment sales, as well as how to negotiate standard consignment agreements covering agency, warranties, transportation, insurance, pricing, gallery commissions, promotion, and return of art.

Presenters Art Neill & Teri Karobonik from New Media Rights will provide an overview of copyright issues facing visual artists, including joint-authored work, work-made-for-hire, derivative works, copyright infringement, fair use, public domain, and registration of copyright.

Presenters:

Jennifer Nelson, Esq., principal at Jennifer Nelson Law

Art Neill, Esq., Founder and Executive Director of New Media Rights

Teri Karobonik, Esq., Staff Attorney Fellow at New Media Rights

Prices - (add $5 at the door)

General Admission - $20

CLA Member - $10

CLA Student or Senior Member - $5

Parking - Ample street parking outside and behind the Bread & Salt building.

Register at: www.calawyersforthearts.org/calendar or directly at <http://bit.ly/1b1Cedo>

Bread & Salt space provided by Art Pulse.

Refreshments provided by the San Diego Foundation.

